

Epiphany Proclamation 2019

Dear brothers and sisters,
the glory of the Lord has shone upon us,
and shall ever be manifest among us, until the day of his return.
Through the rhythms of times and seasons
let us celebrate the mysteries of salvation.

Let us recall the year's culmination, the Easter Triduum of the Lord:
his Last Supper, his Crucifixion, his Burial, and his Rising celebrated between the evening of the eighteenth day of April
and the evening of the twentieth day of April,
Easter Day being on the twenty-first day of April.

Each Easter, as on each Sunday,
the Holy Church makes present the great and saving deed
by which Christ has for ever conquered sin and death.

From Easter are reckoned all the days we keep holy:

Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent, will occur on the sixth day of March.

The Ascension of the Lord will be commemorated on the thirtieth day of May.

The Feast of Corpus Christi will be celebrated on the twentieth day of June.

Pentecost, the joyful conclusion of the season of Easter,
will be celebrated on the ninth day of June.

And, this year the First Sunday of Advent will be on the first day of December.

Likewise the pilgrim Church proclaims the Passover of Christ in the feasts of the holy Mother of God, in the feasts of the Apostles and Saints,
and in the commemoration of the faithful departed;
and, in this parish, particularly in the Feast of our Patron Saint John the Evangelist on the fifth day of May,
and the Commemoration of the Dedication of this House of Prayer
on the Feast of Saint Michael and all Angels
on the twenty-ninth day of September.

To Jesus Christ,
who was, who is, and who is to come,
Lord of time and history,
be endless praise, forever and ever.
Amen. Amen. Amen.
