

Epiphany Proclamation 2020

Dear friends in Christ,
the glory of the Lord has shone upon us,
and shall ever be manifest among us, until the day of his return.
Through the rhythms of times and seasons
let us celebrate the mysteries of salvation.

Let us recall the year's culmination, the Easter Triduum of the Lord:
his Last Supper, his Crucifixion, his Burial, and his Rising celebrated between the evening of the ninth day of April and the evening of the eleventh day of April, Easter Day being on the twelfth day of April.

Each Easter, as on each Sunday,
the Holy Church makes present the great and saving deed by which Christ has forever conquered sin and death.

From Easter are reckoned all the days we keep holy:

Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent, will occur on the twenty-sixth day of February.

The Ascension of the Lord will be commemorated on the twenty-first day of May.

Pentecost, the joyful conclusion of the season of Easter, will be celebrated on the thirty-first day of May.

The Feast of Corpus Christi will be celebrated on the eleventh day of June.

And, this year the First Sunday of Advent will be on the twenty-ninth day of November.

Likewise the pilgrim Church proclaims the Passover of Christ in the feasts of the holy Mother of God, in the feasts of the Apostles and Saints, and in the commemoration of the faithful departed;
and, in this parish, particularly in the Feast of our Patron Saint John the Evangelist on the tenth day of May, and the Commemoration of the Dedication of this House of Prayer on the twenty-seventh day of September, the Sunday nearest to the Feast of Saint Michael and all Angels.

To Jesus Christ,
who was, who is, and who is to come,
Lord of time and history,
be endless praise, forever and ever.
Amen. Amen. Amen.
